Says Dispute Over Firings May Work Out

DERMOTT, Ark. (AP) — The Rev. York W. Williams Jr., of Dermott, president-elect of the Arkansas Teachers Association, said Sunday night that he believed a dispute over the possible firing of eight Negro teachers and a principal at Hermitage would be reconciled.
Williams said the eight teachers and the principal, Laron Tucker, told him last week that the school board may fire the nine faculty members of the West Side School.
"It seems that the matter will be reconciled but we are not sure yet," Williams said. "They will have another board meeting Tuesday night and at that time we will be able to give some definite answers."
Williams said the matter apparently stems from the possibility that the U.S. Education Department may decline to accept Hermitage's freedom-of-choice plan of desegregation.
The teachers were granted a hearing last Thursday night, Williams said, and everyone seemed "interested in trying to solve the problem."

Heavy Rains General in Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Heavy rains fell today for the sixth straight day in Arkansas, flooding low lying areas and raising the possibility of flash flooding on the state's rivers.

The U. S. Weather Bureau
at Little Rock issued a flash flooding warning for areas of the White, Arkansas and Ouachita River basins where heavy rains continued today.

The bureau warned persons in lowlands, particularly those living near smaller streams in the mountainous areas, to be alert for sudden sharp rises in all streams and rivers.

The Weather Bureau also says rain is expected throughout the state through Tuesday.
The Bureau reported heavy rains from the upper Ouachita River Basin in the vicinity of Glenwood and Hot Springs into Northeast Arkansas in the vicinity of Batesville.

Flash flooding was reported today in various sections of the Little Rock. One inch of rain was recorded at Adams Field at Little Rock during a 20-minute period this morning.

A house trailer was blown over this morning at Jacksonville, 13 miles northeast of Little Rock. There were no reports of injuries. Tree limbs were also blown down, and the Little Rock Air Force Base reported gusts up to 40 miles an hour.

The Weather Bureau said
Little Rock had received almost six inches of rain since last Tuesday.

Little River and Sevier counties were under a tornado watch briefly this morning.
There was some flooding reported in the Hot Springs area.
One family was evacuated about 16 miles west of Hot Springs because of flooding on Owl Creek. One bridge over the creek was washed out and some traffic was stranded. Flooding on Rogers Creek also tied up traffic about 10 miles west of Hot Springs.

Five inches of rain was reported at Langley (Pike County) during the 24-hour period which ended this morning. Athens (Howard County) received 3.31 inches during the same period.
Daisy (Pike County) had 3.20 inches during the 24 hours and Jesseville (Montgomery County) reported 2.94 inches during the period.

Bismarck (Hot Spring County) had 1.45 inches in a one-hour period this morning.

The stationary front responsible for the precipitation continues to linger over the state and additional shower activity is expected.

The wet weather has caused increasing problems for cotton and rice farmers in the southern delta. The Weather Bureau said some agriculture stations had reported shower activity for the sixth consecutive day.

The wet cloudy weather is not conducive to getting cotton seedlings off to a good start and may promote some seedling disease, although soil temperatures have not been excessively low.

Overnight low temperatures ranged from 61 at Harrison to 69 at Memphis. Rainfall reports for the 24-hour period ended at 6 a.m. range from a trace at Memphis to 1.71 at Fort Smith.

11.4 Million Young American' Voters May Hold Balance of Power

By JOSEPH R. COYNE
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Census Bureau figures indicate about 11.4 million Americans will be old enough to vote for president for the first time in

they headed for Saigon.
Some military observers considered these casualty figures a highly optimistic estimate.

U.S. headquarters said allied losses were 210 killed, 67 of them Americans, and 979 wounded, including 333 Americans.

For the first time since May 5 there was no significant fighting in Saigon.

Weyand said at least 26 enemy battalions had been scheduled to attack Saigon but well over half of these were intercepted outside the capital military district.

An enemy battalion is supposed to number 400 to 500 men, but U.S. intelligence officers say the battalions in the Saigon area are far under strength.

The Communist command's second offensive lacked the punch of their lunar new year offensive in February, when five enemy battalions were reportedly committed to the Saigon fighting with 16 to 25 more battalions backing them up on the outskirts of the capital.

Viet Cong troops abandoned their last major foothold in Saigon, a bunker complex on the southern fringes of the city, and apparently went south this morning. Residents of the area fled from their huts two miles from the center of the capital last week, and U.S. troops and planes pounded it relentlessly since last Tuesday.

South Vietnamese officials said most of the 5,000 homes in the area had been destroyed or damaged. They estimated that as many as 36,000 civilians were made homeless.

Premier Nguyen Van Loc told the National Assembly that both Communist offensives this year have been defeated since "none of our towns fell into their hands." Loc, whose removal has been widely rumored to be imminent, hinted that his replacement would be "exploited and distorted" by the enemy.

Will Prevent Mixed Drink Measure

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Rep.
Allan Dishongh of Little Rock said Saturday he planned to prevent a mixed drink bill to the 1969 General Assembly if he is re-elected.
Dishongh, who faces Republican Marshall Martin in the November general election, said he is collecting information from surrounding states to see how they handle the mixed drink issue.

"I cannot quite understand why this issue is not met head-on and some good comprehensive legislation drawn that would be acceptable and would solve the problem," Dishongh said in a letter to Marion Burton, executive secretary to Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller.

Dishongh asked Burton to disregard his previous proposed bill for the special session which begins one week from today.

"Admittedly the proposed draft of the legislation which I brought to you would not solve all the problems and there are changes I would want to make before the bill was presented to the House," Dishongh said.

GOPs Would End Death Penalty

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) —
The Arkansas Young Republican League Sunday approved a platform calling for the abolishment of capital punishment and endorsing a revision of what was called the state's "inadequate constitution."

The league also adopted resolutions urging passage of "uniform and clear" statutes for the sale of mixed drinks and one to repeal the law prohibiting the teaching of the theory of evolution in public schools.

Without naming anyone, the league adopted a resolution to "deplore the attitudes and antics of certain irresponsible members of the Arkansas General Assembly."

Ed Allison of Blytheville was re-elected chairman of the league.

McCarthy Is Glum About Nebraska

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy has made a glum assessment of his chances of beating Sen. Robert F. Kennedy in Nebraska, battleground of the moment in the presidential primary circuit.

Nebraskans of both parties will vote Tuesday.

McCarthy said in an interview
Thursday that if it were just a Kennedy-McCarthy contest he could match the New Yorker.

"If we were meeting head-on," he said, "if it were just us two in the contest, I think the outcome would be 50-50. But these others who are in the race will hurt me more than him."

Besides the names of the two senators, the Democratic ballot will list President Johnson even though he announced March 31
he would neither seek nor accept nomination for another term. And a write-in campaign is building for Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, whose decision to seek the nomination came too late for him to be listed on the ballot in Nebraska.

A prediction that none of the Democratic contenders will receive a majority Tuesday came from Nebraska Democratic Chairman John Mitchell.

Kennedy told the United Auto Workers convention in Atlantic City Thursday that countries
"unable or unwilling" to manage their own affairs ought not to expect the United States to take on the chore.

"We can help those who are able to help themselves to meet the needs and desires of their own people for justice and independence," he said. "But we cannot do this job for them."

The United States, Kennedy said, "must adopt a foreign policy which says, clearly and distinuity, no more Vietnam."

An indication of another candidate's thinking on Vietnam came in Lawrence, Kan., Thursday when Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, who is challenging Richard M. Nixon for the GOP nomination, said the South Vietnamese should be permitted complete freedom in choosing the type of government they want.

"What if they choose to be Communist?" said one of the students in a crowd of 17,500 that packed the University of Kansas fieldhouse. "Would you allow that as President?"

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Television's awards show, in which the Emmys will be passed out, comes along next Sunday night, pretty much winding up the awards season.

This has not been one of television's golden years. By and large, the regular fare, the series, have been predictable, grade B stuff. There has been a feast of old movies and a famine of meaty, quality drama.

This viewer, confronted with almost 250 nominees, would find it difficult to pick a favorite program or performer in most of the 47 categories.

Certainly much of the season's excitement was stimulated, first, by "The Smothers Brothers Comedy Hour," and, later, by "Rowan and Martin's Laugh-In." Both shows have several nominations and certainly deserve recognition if only for bringing some spice, daring and often a point of view into an entertainment area that had been slipping into a bland and perfunctory rut.

Occasionally there may have been lapses in taste and the viewer on occasion could disagree violently with their expressions of opinion, but the two shows combined to make a more stimulating season.

"CBS Playhouse" made a stab at bringing back meaningful, original drama, and had some success with two efforts, "Do Not Go Gentle into that Good Night" and "Dear Friends."

ABC's adaptations of some old movies with new stars didn't come off very well, but "A Case of Libel," with Van Heflin recreating his stage role, provided a fine evening of television.

Among the variety specials, one recalls with affection, "Herb Alpert and the Tijuana Brass," on CBS, a most imaginative show, and Frank Sinatra's NBC special with Ella Fitzgerald.

Raymond Burr probably deserves some award for managing, within a few months, to blur his well-established image as Perry Mason by developing a completely different and equally convincing character named Ironside—so convincing a lot of fans believe Burr is really paralyzed and in a wheelchair.

"PBL" on the educational network tried hard if not always successfully, in the current affairs area. ABC's "The Rise and Fall of the Third Reich" was a painstaking and well-researched three-part series, and its "Africa," a marathon program that taxed the viewer's stamina, was certainly an ambitious piece of

Sesame Swiss Cheese Loaf

Sesame Seed And Swiss Cheese Combine In This Quick-To-Prepare Bread For Memorable Good Eating.

Quick loaf breads belong on your table anytime of day — breakfast, lunch, dinner or snack-time. Fragrant Sesame Swiss Cheese Loaf adds a new dimension in taste no matter what the occasion. Wonderful with salads, the nut-like flavor, typical of both the cheese and sesame seed, reaches even greater heights when served toasted for brunch or lunch.

Today's homemaker will find the quick method of mixing suited to her busy schedule, too. All liquid ingredients are added to dry ingredients, mixed together and poured into a baking pan. What could be easier? Make this loaf often, store it in the refrigerator or freezer and serve to drop-in guests.

Since bread products like Sesame Swiss Cheese Loaf are part of the basic four food groups, you'll want to include several servings every day to maintain and promote good health and to provide the nutritional bonus of enriched flour. Enrichment means you can count on three B-vitamins — thiamine, niacin and riboflavin, and the mineral, iron — all without extra cost or calories. The enrichment process is credited with virtual elimination of many once-common vitamin deficiency diseases.

SESAME SWISS CHEESE LOAF

1 loaf

2 cups sifted enriched flour* 1/4 cup toasted sesame seed

3 tablespoons sugar 2 eggs, beaten

4 teaspoons baking powder 1 1/4 cups milk

1 1/2 teaspoons salt 1/4 cup oil

1 cup shredded Swiss cheese

Sift together flour, sugar, baking powder and salt. Stir in cheese and sesame seed. Blend eggs, milk and oil. Add liquid all at once to flour mixture, stirring only until flour is moistened. Pour into greased 4 1/2 x 8 1/2-inch loaf pan. Bake in preheated 375° oven 65 to 70 minutes, or until done. Cool 15 minutes before removing from pan.

*If you don't sift and in the absence of other directions, spoon flour directly from container into a one-cup dry measure, level off, then remove two level tablespoonsful per cup, according to USDA recommendations.

NOTE: If self-rising flour is used, omit baking powder and salt.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

YOUTH ASKED FOR IT!

This column is for young people, their problems and pleasures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help Us!, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush off.

Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED FOR IT, care of Helen Help Us! in this newspaper.

HER DISCIPLINE: TOO LITTLE, TOO LATE

Dear Helen: I'm sitting in my 13-year-old daughter's room. I want to describe it to you.

Her shoes are on the dresser, her school clothes hang over the door, her slip is on the floor. Magazines are thrown everywhere. Crumpled-up paper, the same. Dirty clothes shoved under the bed; well-chewed gum stuck on the bedposts. The bed unmade; dust everywhere.

Perhaps all kids this age are slobos, so I try to be patient. But when I ask her to clean up, she sasses back. She even took up smoking and tells me to clean up the ashes she drops.

Helen, child psychology books say she too old for a spanking. Reasoning doesn't help. Am I terrible to consider — REACHING FOR THE PADDLE?

Dear Reaching: Don't just reach—USE that paddle!—H.

Dear Helen: In your column recently, "M.K." draws a profile of her mother who has a very tragic drinking problem. You indicated that an alcoholic can't be helped until she admits she needs it, and suggested that the girl get her mother to a doctor the next time she is sick from a hangover, so that, hopefully, he will make her face and accept treatment.

May I refer you to our National Council on Alcoholism, 2 East 103rd Street, New York, N.Y., 10029, or to the local affiliate, who will supply information and hope to "M.K." I feel your response may have been unnecessarily pessimistic.

Formerly, it was thought that the alcoholic had to "hit bottom" on his own. We now know that help can be given through "constructive coercion" and "creating a crisis." While it is true that the most effective treatment for the disease of alcoholism is realized when the patient is acceptant, it is also true that positive response can often be achieved when initial treatment cannot be classed as voluntary.

I also feel that a referral to Al-Anon or Alateen would be helpful. The national address of these groups is P.O. Box 182, Madison Square Station, New York, N.Y., 10010. Information concerning local meetings may be had by calling Alcoholics Anonymous, listed in the telephone book.—DOROTHY GRIFFIN, DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INFORMATION, CHICAGO COUNCIL ON ALCOHOLISM

Archer Is Winner at New Orleans

by BEN THOMAS

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW ORLEANS (AP) — George Archer added $20,000 to his swelling bank account today — the result of a string of birdies that won the Greater New Orleans Open golf title.

The 6-foot-6 par nailed down first place in the $100,000 tournament Sunday on the 18th green by tapping in a five-foot putt for his fourth birdie on the back nine.

At 67, Archer was four under par over the demanding 6,560-yard Lakewood Country Club course — 13 under at 271 for the 72 holes. His slice of the cash boosted his PGA tour earnings to $77,632 for the year.

A superb finishing round of 36, five under par, boosted Bert Yancey to the second spot and a $12,000 payoff. Miller Barber, Tom Welskopf and Bobby Cole tied for third at 276.

Barber and Welskopf were tied for the lead when the final round began but both fired 73s for the last 18 holes.

Cole, who had a 65 Saturday, ran into a horrendous triple bogey at No. 15 when his tee shot disappeared in thick Spanish moss hanging from a cypress tree, and he finished with a 70.

Archer was one under on the front nine. At No. 10 he three-putted from 45 feet for a bogey 5. Then he buckled down.

On 11 he clipped in from off the green for a birdie. At 12 he rammed in a 15-foot birdie putt. At 13 his lie was four feet off the green and 30 feet from the flag but his chip shot ran straight to the hole.

Jack Nicklaus was far down the money list. His first three rounds were even par.

His fourth was a 68 — highlighted by a drive that carried the 380-yard, par-4 16th from the tee. He tied at 13th place and picked up $1,900.

A-State Gets All-Sports Honors

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — Arkansas State captured the Southland Conference all-sports trophy Saturday night after winning the league baseball title and placing second in the track meet.

The Indians scored 33 points in the standings to capture the all-sports trophy. Lamar Tech was second with 32 points and Abilene Christian had 31.

The Indians won their second straight baseball crown by tripping Tech 7-4 in the finale of the double elimination tournament after Tech extended the meet to the limit with a 5-4 triumph over ASU.

Abilene won the track title easily, scoring 99½ points to 77½ for ASU, which nudged Trinity by one-half point.

ASU's Thomas Hill equalled the conference 120-yard high hurdle mark with a 14.4 clocking.

One of the featured events was the mile where Abilene's Al Van Troba and ASU's Bob Giersberg ran shoulder to shoulder the entire distance. Troba won with a 4:06.4 while Giersberg finished at 4:06.5. Giersberg finished second in the three-mile and third in the 880.

Grid Player, Owner Fight Is Looming

ATLANTA (AP) — The annual spring meeting of professional football club owners gets under way here today with a controversy already looming between owners and players in the National Football League.

The player — owner dispute, which involved salaries and the pension fund, flared into the open Sunday when Art Modell, owner of the Cleveland Browns and NFL president, said concessions being demanded by the players "come under the realm of impossibility."

Modell said he and his labor relations committee "are open to any suggestion that makes sense," but said two of the player demands are impossible.

The two player proposals considered impossible, Modell said, are that $5 million be contributed annually to the player retirement fund and that each player receive $500 for each exhibition game.

In addition, the NFL Players Association also is seeking a minimum salary of $15,000 a year for players.

Modell gave no indication how that proposal would be received. During the meeting, which will last through Wednesday, the NFL and American Football League owners will try to get together on other differences such as the use of individual names on jerseys and the selection of a site for the 1969 Super Bowl.

A change on extra point scoring also has been proposed to put more suspense into the games.

The proposal up for consideration would prohibit the extra point kick and would allow one point for a successful running or passing conversion after a touchdown.

Coaches in the AFL have gone on record in favor of the plan.

Hearing Into Kentucky Derby Case Starts

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The official hearing into the disqualification of Kentucky Derby winner Dancer's Image got under way today with the possible suspension of trainer Lou Cavalaris Jr. hanging on the outcome.

The hearing is to determine the guilt or innocence of those connected with the horse, including owner Peter Fuller of North America's leading conditioners.

Fuller has said he will not allow Dancer's Image to run in Saturday's Preakness if Cavalaris is suspended and cannot saddle the horse.

Track stewards started their racing world last Tuesday with the announcement that traces of phenylbutazone, a banned drug, had shown up in a routine urine specimen taken from the Derby winner after the race.

After that announcement the real bomb was dropped when stewards said Dancer's Image had been placed last and Forward Pass declared winner of the 94th running of the American classic. It was the first time a Derby winner's number had been taken down.

Phenylbutazone, or "bute" as it is called by horsemen, is an analgesic which is allowable for horses in training, but taboo for actual racing.

Cavalaris said the colt had been given a dose of the drug the Sunday before the race, but said the following six days should have been plenty of time for effects of the "bute" to wear off.

Veterinarians are agreed generally that the drug usually is dissipated within 85 hours.

Triple by Davis Wins for Dodgers

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer
Willie Davis kept the faith in one baseball adage and Walter Alston flouted another. The Los Angeles Dodgers came out ahead both ways.

Davis overhauled the law of averages Sunday, breaking an 0-for-24 slump with a 12th-inning triple and scoring on Zolfo Versalles' infield hit as the Dodgers nipped Atlanta 1-0 ... with the help of a hazardous managerial maneuver by Alston.

The Los Angeles skipper ordered Hank Aaron walked intentionally — putting the potential winning run on base — during the Braves' last-ditch rally in the bottom of the 12th.

"I wasn't going to let Aaron beat me," said Alston, explaining why he had Jim Brewer walk Aaron with two out and Felipe Alou, who had doubled, in scoring position. "I broke an unwritten rule, but Hank's one of those rare characters you can justify breaking that rule for."

The Dodgers got away with it when Jim Grant, third reliever in the inning, induced pinch hitter Deron Johnson to bounce into a game-ending force play at second.

In other National League squeakers Pittsburgh edged Philadelphia 2-1, Houston shaded first place St. Louis 3-2 and Cincinnati came from behind to beat San Francisco 3-1. The Chicago Cubs divided a doubleheader with New York, topping the Mets 4-3 before taking a 10-0 drubbing in the nightcap.

Cleveland swept an American League doubleheader from Baltimore 2-0 and 4-1, Boston whipped New York twice 8-1 and 4-2, Washington stopped Detroit 6-3, Minnesota downed California 4-2 in 10 innings and Oakland trimmed Chicago 6-2.

Davis lined a shot up the right center field alley with two out in the 12th and legged the hit into a triple. Versalles then brought home the game's only run by beating out a roller to the left side.

Davis' triple off Cecil Upshaw was only the fourth hit for the Dodgers, who managed just two in eight innings against starter Dick Kelley. Don Sutton, who worked the first nine innings, winner Jack Billingham, John Purdin, Brewer and Grant limited the Braves to seven hits.

Run-scoring singles by Roberto Clemente and Matty Alou gave the Pirates a 2-0 first-inning lead and right-hander Al McBean made it stand up for his fifth victory in seven decisions.

McBean scattered seven hits while the Pirates tagged rookie Jeff James for five singles in the first ... and just one more hit the rest of the way.

Dennis Menke's two-run single off Bob Gibson with two out in the seventh carried the Astros past St. Louis. Larry Dierker held the Cardinals to seven hits, including a homer by Mike Shannon, in gaining his third victory against five setbacks.

Willie Mays' 570th career homer gave the Giants a 1-0 lead at Cincinnati, but the Reds struck for three runs in the eighth and hung on to end a five-game losing string. Winning pitcher Gerry Arrigo allowed three hits before leaving for a pinch hitter in the eighth.

Leo Cardenas and pinch hitter Chico Ruiz got the Reds' rally started with singles and Cardenas scored the tying run as Pete Rose tapped into a force play. Alex Johnson followed with a run-scoring double and tallied on a single by Tony Perez.

The Cubs-Mets opener was tied 3-3 when Chicago pitcher Rich Nye led off the ninth with a single and was forced at second by Don Kessinger. Kessinger stole second and then raced all the way home with the winning run as Glenn Beckert beat out a bouncer to short.

Dick Selma stopped the Cubs on five hits in the nightcap and contributed three singles to New York's 17-hit assault. Met catcher Jerry Grote had three hits in the first game and stroked singles his first two times up in the nightcap for a three-game run of seven successive hits before the Cubs finally got him out.

Giant's 4th Shutout Beats Orioles

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer
They say pitching is 75 per cent of the game and when Luis Tiant is the man on the mound, enemy batters have trouble getting their 25 per cent worth.

Tiant hurled his fourth straight shutout Sunday, beating Baltimore on four hits as Cleveland took the first game of a doubleheader 2-0. Stan Williams then tacked on eight more scoreless innings before Brooks Robinson homered to break the spell but the Indians completed the sweep, 4-1.

If the Orioles were somewhat suspicious of Tiant's shutout string before Sunday, it was understandable. The Cuban-born right-hander had a 0-6 lifetime record against them in four previous big-league seasons.

But he struck out nine and was in control all the way, besting Tom Phoebus in a pitcher's duel. Tony Horton's sixth inning single gave Tiant the only run he needed and Dave Nelson's suicide squeeze bunt brought in the other in the ninth.

Elsewhere in the American League Sunday, Boston swept a doubleheader from New York 8-1 and 4-2, Washington dropped Detroit 6-3, Minnesota rapped California 4-2 in 10 innings and Oakland took Chicago 6-2.

In the National League, Chicago split with New York, taking the first game 4-3 but losing the nightcap 10-0. Los Angeles nipped Atlanta 1-0 in 12 innings, Pittsburgh edged Philadelphia 2-1, Cincinnati dropped San Francisco 3-1 and Houston topped St. Louis 3-2.

Tiant's four shutouts leave him one short of the major league record set in 1904 by Doc White of the Chicago White Sox. His 36 consecutive shutout innings are 20 away from the mark set by Walter Johnson. He is sporting a 1.73 earned run average.

Williams almost duplicated Tiant's job. He held the Orioles scoreless on four hits until Robinson connected in the ninth, in all the Indians have won 16 games, nine of them on shutouts.

Cleveland with 10 victories in 11 starts and four straight over Baltimore has soared into a second place tie with the Orioles, who've dropped six in a row.

Detroit is still in front despite Sunday's loss to the Senators. Frank Howard led Washington's attack with two homers — his eighth and ninth of the season — while Ken McMullen socked his fifth.

Sal Bando socked three hits and drove in two runs as the Athletics raked Chicago. Tony Pierce, making his first start of the season, won it with Jack Aker coming out of the bullpen to get the last out.

Jim Fregosi's 10th inning error allowed Minnesota's winning run to score and the Twins added an insurance run when Bob Allison walked with the bases loaded. Both California runs came as the result of bases-loaded walks by starter Dave Boswell.

But Rich Rollins' seventh-inning homer tied it for the Twins and Fregosi's error on Tony Oliva's bouncer allowed Rod Carew to race home with the winner.

Dick Ellsworth pitched a three-hitter in the opener and Gary Bell allowed five hits in the second game as Boston swept the Yankees.

The Red Sox, who had dropped three straight and six of eight, jumped on Bill Monbouquette for five runs in the first inning of the opener with double: by Carl Yastrzemski, Reggie Smith and Ken Harrelson the big blows. Sox opped on Fred Talbot for three quick runs.

FRESNO, Calif. (AP) — Billy Mills, the United States' hero of the 1964 Olympic Games, sets his sights on another victory in the grueling 10,000-meter race and feels he's well ahead in his training program.

A member of the Marines when he won at Tokyo, Mills now works for an insurance company in San Diego and so far has concentrated on shorter races.

At the West Coast Relays on Saturday night, he placed third in the two-mile race won by veteran steeple chase runner Pat Traynor in 8 minutes 42.2 seconds. Mills' time was 8:43

Transplant Patient in Good Shape

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A Paris hospital said today a patient was in excellent condition after a heart transplant Sunday, and medical sources identified him as a 45-year-old Roman Catholic priest who had suffered 30 heart attacks.
At the Houston, Tex., hospital where three transplants were performed in one week, one of the two surviving patients was reported in "serious but improving" condition and the other was in excellent shape.
The bulletin from Broussais Hospital in Paris on France's third and the world's 14th human heart transplant said only that the hospital's team had performed the operation "under satisfactory conditions and the state of the patient is excellent."
The French medical sources already had reported that Prof. Charles Dubost, aided by Drs. Jean-Paul Cachat and Michel Lacombe, gave a priest from Marseille the heart of a 39-year-old man who died Friday from a cerebral hemorrhage.
They said an artificial blood supply had kept the heart alive until the operation.
France's other two heart recipients are dead.
Four heart recipients survive in other nations.
John W. Stuckwisch, 62, at St. Luke's Episcopal Hospital in Houston, is the man listed in serious condition. But a spokesman said: "His dramatic recovery from the desperate operation last Tuesday and steady improvement are considered to be encouraging."
Cooley's other surviving patient, Everett C. Thomas, 47, is on a normal diet and walking in his private room. Thomas, a Phoenix, Ariz., accountant, received a new heart May 3 from a 15-year-old housewife who died of a gunshot wound in the head.
The world's other two heart transplant survivors are Dr. Philip Blaiberg, 58 living at home in Cape Town, South Africa, 4½ months after his operation, and Frederick West, 45, whose operation was May 3 in London.

cause of delays caused by the weather and a torn ligament he suffered while doing a strenuous dance, he is not really too happy when not working for a very old-fashioned reason: He misses his family.
"I loved it here while they were with me," he says. "We had a home in the country and the novelty of living in England was new. Now I feel I'll be climbing the walls without them."
He has a film soon due for release, "Never a Dull Moment," which he made for Walt Disney. When he finishes "Chitty Chitty Bang Bang," he and Carl Reiner will have a reunion with "Baggy Pants." After that Dick would like to produce a property he owns called "How To Be a Bishop Without Being Religious," although he says he is having trouble getting a script that is right.
In "Chitty Chitty Bang Bang," based on a children's book by Ian Fleming, better known as the creator of James Bond, Dick plays the widowed English father of two youngsters who buys a motor car, then finds it has magical powers, like the ability to fly or float. He is not using an English accent however, "because I used one in 'Mary Poppins' and I learned my lesson."

The songs have been written by the Sherman brothers, Richard and Robert, who wrote the score for "Mary Poppins." Among the major numbers is one which is a fast version of an old country Morris dance, and another which takes place in a candy factory. That was when Dick tore the ligament. "The step is in the film, and as I watched the rushes I looked for a sign of pain on my face. There weren't any and I realized that when a performer is working, he doesn't really hurt until afterwards."

DICK VAN DYKE, right, has a new look in his newest film, something called "Chitty Chitty Bang Bang," which, believe it or not, is about a car. Gert Frobe and Sally Ann Howes are also in the cast.

Tent City to House the Marchers

By DONALD M. ROTHBERG
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Poor People's Campaign, officially launched with a Mother's Day march through a riot-ridden Negro slum, now begins erecting the tent city to house some 3,000 demonstrators slowly covering on the city.
The first 450 of the campaign's rank and file reached the nation's capital over the weekend. More are scheduled to arrive by week's end.
Mrs. Martin Luther King Jr., widow of the slain civil rights leader who conceived the campaign as a means of winning more federal help for the poor, led Sunday's march.
The demonstration, soaked by rain for most of its duration, went off without incident. Police Lt. E. J. Prete estimated the number of marchers at between 2,000 and 3,500.
Today the Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, King's successor as head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, is to drive a stake into parkland near the Lincoln Memorial and thus signal the start of construction of shelters in what campaign leaders call Resurrection City.
The 15-acre site runs parallel to the reflecting pool between the Lincoln Memorial and the Washington Monument.
The Mother's Day march was sponsored by the Nationwide Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO), which sent delegations from chapters across the

Karate Expert Charged With Two Murders

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Jack Griffith, a karate expert from Miami, was arrested here today in the murders of two former California secretaries who police wanted to question about a transcontinental securities conspiracy case.
Griffith, wearing only a pair of trousers, was arrested at a house he said he rented four days ago in this capital city some 450 miles from Whiskey Creek near Fort Lauderdale where the bodies of the secretaries were found.
Jack "Murf the Surf" Murphy, 30-year-old beachboy-turned-jewel thief also charged in the murders, surrendered to Miami police last week and is being held in the county jail at Fort Lauderdale.
Griffith and Murphy were charged with first degree murder in the slayings last Dec. 8 of Terry Rae Kent Frank, 23, of Amberly, Ohio, and Annelle Marie Mohn, 21, a German national.
After the bodies were found, an audit at the Los Angeles brokerage house of Ruter, Jackson and Gray revealed $488,732 in securities were missing. Los Angeles police said the thefts were discovered after Mrs. Frank, a divorcee, and Miss DARLINGTON, S.C. (AP) — David Pearson, driving a Ford Torino, won the Rebel-400 stock car race Sunday at a record average speed of 132.599 miles per hour.

Hill Drive His Lotus to Win
MADRID, Spain (AP) — Graham Hill, averaging 84.407 m.p.h., drove his Lotus to victory by 16 seconds Sunday in the Spanish Grand Prix and took the lead in the 1968 Formula One world championship.

Robinson Leads Team to Victory

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Rich Robinson won the 220-yard dash in meet record time of 21.5 and Yale's relay team trounced the 440-yard and mile team events to lead Yale to victory Saturday over defending champion Army and Harvard in the 34th annual Heptagonal Games track championship.
Mohn quit the firm and moved to Miami Beach.

What makes a Pontiac a Pontiac?

(And what makes ordinary cars ordinary?)

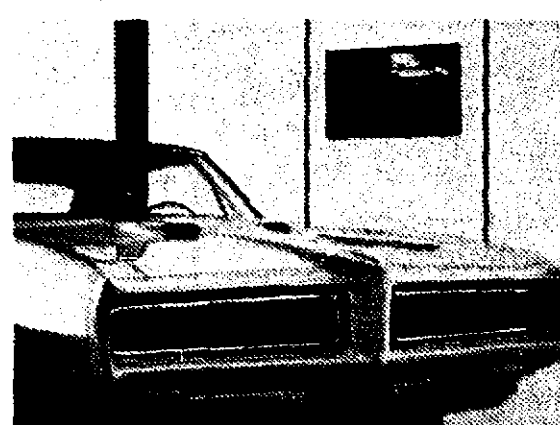

Only Pontiacs have Wide-Track. Drive a Pontiac and you'll wonder who took all the bumps and curves out of the road.

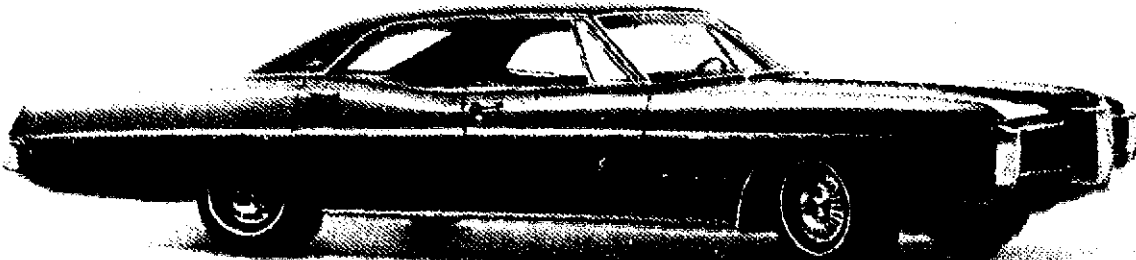

Even our lowest priced Pontiac has a unique 175-hp Overhead Cam Six. Unless you count cylinders, you'll swear it's a V-8.

Pontiac interiors make you glad you left home — soft Morrokide and simulated wood trim so real only a termite can tell it isn't.

Innovations like GTO's Bumper-of-the-Year make Pontiacs look expensive. But record sales prove we know how to price them, too.

THE GREAT WIDE-TRACK DRIVE IS ON!

See your Pontiac dealer. He's out to smash sales records for the 7th straight year!

Nine-Month Movie Spat Ends

By JOAN CROSBY
NEA Entertainment Editor
LONDON—(NEA)—An automatic candy-making machine is chugging out peppermints, an automatic haircutting machine is looking for someone to scalp, an automatic dishwashing machine is breaking crockery and an automatic rocking chair is waiting to soothe an angry Dick Van Dyke, busily arguing with Sally Ann Howes.
The argument started last August and is being finished this minute. There's nothing personal in it. It's just a scene from "Chitty Chitty Bang Bang," a musical fantasy due for Christmas release from United Artists and a film to which Dick has devoted one year of his life, with a brief time out to go back to the Hollywood to tape his recent special.
He'll be back in the States again, to stay awhile he hopes, when he is New York master of ceremonies for the Emmy Awards telecast, due for NBC-TV on May 19.
Right now, Dick is standing on his mark as director Ken Hughes looks through the camera viewfinder at the man hiding behind the "automatic" candy-making machine, seeing that it works "O.K., you're safe," Hughes says to the man.
"They keep saying if you're not in the film you're safe," Dick laughs. "You're safe," he says, pointing to someone outside camera range, "you're safe, and you're out."
Dick and Sally do the scene, but he doesn't hold a peppermint up high enough for the camera. They do the scene again. This time Hughes says, "Dick, you were a little off your mark." Dick says, "But I had my sweet up high."
By now it is well known that Van Dyke is one of the most talented and nicest men in the business. You have only to watch him work to realize the fun he has acting. Yet, be-

THE WELL CHILD

Handicapped Children Can Develop Skills

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Oswald: "We haven't talked about no-trump bidding for a long time. Maybe we should discuss it again."

Jim: "A good idea. The basic idea of the opening no-trump is that it is bid with a hand that would be difficult to rebid if opened with anything else. In addition, the hand must be suitable for no-trump play. Thus, the standard opening no-trump is distributed 5-3-3-2, 4-4-3-2 or 4-3-3-3. It is downright silly to open in no-trump with a singleton."

Oswald: "Today's South hand is a good example of a maximum Jacoby no-trump. South has 18 high card points, all suits stopped and 4-3-3-3 distribution. It might be described as 18 points minus."

Jim: "That's right. Add a couple of 10 spots and we would open one club and jump in no-trump at our next turn to bid. The standard American no-trump has a point count range of 15-17 or 16-18, with 16-18 more popular. We use 15 plus to 17 plus and consider this as a 17 plus hand rather than an 18 pointer."

Oswald: "North also has a balanced hand and is able to raise to three no-trump by the use of simple arithmetic. He holds 10 points. This means that the partnership total will be somewhere from 28 to 28 and, since 26 should present a satisfactory play for game and it takes 33 for a satisfactory play for a slam, North bids three no-trump."

Jim: "There is no trouble with the play. South's jack of hearts wins the first trick and he notes that West surely holds that ace. Then South takes the four diamond tricks and leads a spade toward dummy's queen. When that queen holds, South plays a second heart. This line of play produces one spade, two hearts, four diamonds and two clubs for a total of nine tricks."

Q—We have a 3-month-old baby. My husband smokes marijuana at home. Could this smoke in the room hurt the baby's health?

A—I trust your husband doesn't blow the smoke in the baby's face. Although there is no direct evidence that a small amount of this smoke in the air would affect the baby, I would strongly advise that your husband, if he feels he must indulge in this juvenile habit, do his smoking in another room.

Q—The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
Pass	2 N.T. Pass	?	1 N.T.

You, South, hold:

♠ A 2 ♣ K J 5 ♦ K 10 6 4 ♣ A Q 9 8

What do you do now?

A—Bid three no-trump. You have 17 points plus good spot cards.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of bidding two no-trump, your partner responds two clubs and you rebid two diamonds to show that you don't have a four-card major. Your partner rebids two hearts playing in nonforcing Stayman. What do you do?

Struggle, Strife, Success Mark Israel's 20 Years as Nation

This month the State of Israel celebrates its 20th anniversary as a republic. Three wars with its Arab neighbors have punctuated the two decades since May 14, 1948, when the fledgling nation proclaimed, "This land is mine," but the country's over-all economy has grown and it has made significant scientific advances. The dream of Dr. Chaim Weizmann, early leader for a Jewish homeland in Palestine, is pictorialized here in a dramatic drawing by John Lane, NEA's creative art director. Photos point up Israel's accomplishments in education, science and industry.

Technology Aids Study of Ancients

The use of computers is growing in importance for museum scholars throughout the world. The electronic systems are being used in projects such as detecting art forgeries, classifying archeological findings and analyzing artistic content. Virginia Burton, above, assistant curator of Egyptian art at New York's Metropolitan Museum of Art, gives the computer information by drawing pictures on a screen with an electronic probe. Such pictorial data then may be manipulated, compared with other images and analyzed statistically as well as visually. Carl Dauterman, top right, associate curator at the museum, is using a computer to help classify and catalogue Sevres, an often-faked porcelain art. Dee F. Green, right, assistant professor of anthropology at Weber State College, Ogden, Utah, lectures two students on prehistoric American Indian culture. Using data taken from aerial photos of southeastern Utah, the computer helps plot potential excavation sites.

Truth in Office
Just as in Print

To Hal Boyle's curbstone philosophers you must add the name of Marvin Watterson, retired custodian of Hope city hall.

Marvin came up with this crack over the week-end—whether original or remembered I failed to determine:

"The score on a lot of welfare folks is three out and one in—Out of clothes, out of money, in debt, and out-of-doors."

On April 30 we charged that federal Form MC27A (Rev.) for the reporting of the 1967 Census of Manufactures is a misrepresentation, deceit, and untruth.

At the top of the form, returnable to the Census Bureau this year reporting 1967 statistics on private business, the Government agency publishes the same public notice given in earlier forms, as follows:

"NOTICE — Response to this inquiry is required by law (Title 13 U.S. Code). By the same law, your report to the Census Bureau is confidential. It may be seen only by sworn Census employees and may be used only for statistical purposes."

But the 1967 form adds this line to the Notice of earlier years: "The law also provides that copies retained in your files are immune from legal process."

This last line is untrue. As I pointed out in my editorial of April 30 the Supreme Court of the United States declared in a decision Dec. 11, 1961, that while original reports in the files of the Census Bureau are immune to legal process this protection DOES NOT extend to copies remaining in private business files—and these copies may be demanded by Government agents.

Therefore the Government, which constantly charges private business with misrepresentation, deceit, and untruth, in trade and advertising, itself stands convicted of misrepresentation, deceit, and untruth in an official document.

On May 3 I reported in this column that I had appealed May 2 to our Congressmen, John Paul Hammerschmidt of the Fourth Arkansas District, to demand an explanation from the Census Bureau.

Our position was further reinforced this morning when the May 11 membership bulletin of the Southern Newspaper Publishers Association, Chattanooga, Tenn., reached this office—reprinting the gist of our April 30 editorial.

I am asking SNPA to forward to Congressmen Hammerschmidt a copy of its bulletin as proof that the issue is being raised regionally if not nationally—a status which will be reached when the Census Bureau finally is compelled to make a public statement.

French Strike Fails to Reach Goal

By LOUIS NEVIN
Associated Press Writer
PARIS (AP) — French labor unions, students and opposition politicians joined today in the first nationwide general strike of President Charles de Gaulle's 10-year rule. But by midday the attempt to paralyze France appeared to have fallen far short of its mark.

Except for scattered slow-downs and disruptions the country seemed largely unaffected.

Train service was reduced, departure of international flights from France was canceled, traffic in the cities was less than normal. But power supplies continued with only spotty interruptions and many shops and offices did business as usual.

In Paris, one of the electricity cutoffs hit the two hotels housing the U.S. and North Vietnamese delegations to the Vietnam peace conference.

But at the conference building, where full-scale discussions got under way this morning, there were no effects.

The nation's four main trade unions acted together for the first time in more than a decade to organize the strike.

Security officials hoped that a major demonstration planned during the afternoon would not turn violent. Thousands of students were expected to join with workers in a three-hour march through a working class district to the left bank.

The strike was called in support of students at the University of Paris whose conflict with the government erupted last week in bloody battles with police.

The riots, strikes and demonstrations could not have come at a more embarrassing time for de Gaulle with hundreds of foreign newsmen assembled for the opening today of the Vietnam peace talks.

There was no indication, however, that the demonstrators would try to approach the conference hall. And the government made sure that the strike of power plant workers and others would not interfere with the conference.

The strike began at one minute past midnight.

Although the students and their struggle for improvement of university conditions were the chief reason for the demonstrations, many unions called on their members to demonstrate also for greater job security and more purchasing power for their wages.

Honor Graduates

CAROL ANTHONY

JIMMY TURNER

Carol Anthony and Jimmy Turner lead the 1968 graduating class of Hope High School scholastically.

Carol, the valedictorian, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Anthony. This week she received an award for being "the most outstanding player" on the 1968 girls basketball team. She is an honor graduate and has been selected for membership in the Society for Academic Achievement.

She has been secretary of the National Honor Society, treasurer of the Future Teachers, parliamentarian of the Career Girls Club, and a member of Mu Alpha Theta Honor Math Society and the Junior Counselors. Carol was a delegate to Girls State.

Carol plans to enroll at the University of Arkansas in September and will major in mathematics.

Jimmy, the salutatorian, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Turner. He was business manager of the 1968 Bobcat and received an award for "service beyond the call of duty." He has been a senior representative on the student council, treasurer of the National Honor Society, and a member of the Future Teachers, Mu Alpha Theta Honor Math Society, and the Quill and Scroll Honor Society.

Jimmy, too, is an honor graduate and has been named for membership in the Society for Academic Achievement.

Jimmy was president of his junior class and vice president of the sophomore class. He was also a delegate to Boys State. His Peace Essay placed first in the local and district Lions contest.

Next fall he plans to enter Hendrix College.

About Half of 20,000 Reserves in Callup Headed for Vietnam

By FRED HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Nearly 20,000 Army, Air Force and Navy Reservists and National Guardsmen—about half of them Vietnam-bound—answer President Johnson's call to active duty today.

How long they stay in uniform will depend at least partly on the course of U.S.-North Vietnamese talks beginning today in Paris. They could be held on active duty for up to two years.

The course of the peace talks may also determine whether any more citizen soldiers and sailors will be called up. Pentagon officials said no decision has been reached on any further muster of Reservists.

Acting on Johnson's orders, Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford announced April 11 that about 24,500 reservists were being ordered to active duty. They were given 30 days to arrange their affairs before putting on their uniforms.

Clifford said about 10,000 of the Reservists and Guardsmen would be sent to Vietnam to provide needed support troops and the rest would help fill out the badly depleted central force of fighting men kept in the United States for possible use worldwide.

Last week, about 1,250 Air Force and Air Guard troops were excused from active service because it was found regular Air Force units could provide the support functions the Reservists had been designated to fill.

This reduced the over-all callup total to about 23,300. Nearly 20,000 report today. They form some 97 units in 34 states.

Another 3,600 individual Reservists from the Army ready reserve manpower pool will show up for active duty starting June 15, the Pentagon said. These men will fill out the ranks of understrength units called to active duty.

The new callup brings to more than 38,000 the number of Reservists and Guardsmen ordered to active duty since January.

Bids Asked on Concessions at Millwood

Proposals for a commercial concession to be located in the Millwood Reservoir are being accepted by the Tulsa District Corps of Engineers. Bids will be opened at 1 p.m. on June 3 in the Tulsa District Office.

The site offered for lease designated as Beard's Bluff Concession contains approximately 4½ acres of land and water.

Col. Vernon W. Pinkney, Tulsa district engineer, said the lease will run for 10 years. The annual rental will be amount state in the offer accepted by the government but no offers for less than the appraised fair rental value of the property will be accepted.

The minimum facilities and services to be provided during the first lease year include an 80 linear-foot floating dock, gasoline and serve dock, office concession float, 25 slips for boats and two rental boats.

Proposals will be analyzed to

Weekend Death Toll Is Worst

A record 15 persons were killed in weekend traffic accidents in Arkansas, with nine of the victims dying in three separate mishaps, an Associated Press count showed today.

The State Police said the total was the most for any weekend, including holidays, since the State Police began keeping records in 1966.

The death toll covered the period between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight Sunday.

Four persons were killed and three others injured Saturday night in a two-car collision on U.S. 67 about three miles north of Swifton.

State Police identified the dead as Jerry Morris, 51, and his brother, Willie both of Mabelvale, and Larry Nicholson, 31, and Walter Mathis, both of Newport.

Officers said Nicholson attempted to pass another car during a rainstorm and collided head-on with a car driven by Jerry Morris. Injured in the accident were James Paul Turner of Tuckerman and Sammy Mathis and Joe Long, both of Diaz.

Moses Thomas, 18, and James Love, both of Hampton, and Charlie Knight, 25, of Camden, died early Sunday in a two-car crash on Arkansas 4 about one mile west of Harrell in Calhoun County.

A two-vehicle wreck on U.S. 61 about eight miles south of Osceola Saturday night claimed the lives of two persons and injured six others—all occupants of the same car.

The victims were William M. Smith, 24, of Savannah, Tenn., and Herman Miller, 31, of Joiner. Police said Miller's car was struck head-on by a car driven by Joe N. Bowen, 20, of Bassett. Officers said Bowen was attempting to pass another car.

Hospitalized at Memphis in critical condition were Miller's wife Eloise, 30, and their children, Danny, 10, and Debby, 11, and Smith's wife, Peggy Jean, 20, and the Smith's children Gloria Jean, 1, and William Gordon, 3.

Odel Adams 18, of White Rock (Pulaski County) was killed Saturday when the car he was in crashed into a concrete culvert and flipped end over end on U.S. 67 about six miles south of Malvern.

Frank C. Henderson, 54, of England, was killed in a two-car crash Saturday on Arkansas 130 about seven miles east of England.

Roosevelt Canady Jr., 5, of Pine Bluff, was killed Saturday when he was struck by a city bus in Pine Bluff.

James Owens, 21, of Wynne, a student at Arkansas State University at Jonesboro, was killed Sunday when his car struck a bridge railing on Arkansas 18 about three miles west of Lake City.

Lee Logan, 21, of Blytheville was killed Sunday when his car struck the rear of a tractor trailer truck about five miles south of Osceola on Interstate 55.

Hope Pastor to Address Graduates

The Rev. Kenneth Bazar, pastor of the Liberty Baptist Church of Hope, will bring the 1968 Commencement Address Monday evening, May 13, for the Oklahoma Missionary Baptist Institute and Seminary in Marlow, Oklahoma.

During the Commencement Services, the Rev. Bazar will be given the degree of Doctor in Divinity by the Oklahoma school. In addition to pastoring the local church, the Rev. Bazar is Assistant Editor of Publications for the churches of the American Baptist Association, with offices in Texarkana.

According to Dr. R. T. Peritt, president of the Oklahoma Missionary Baptist Institute, the honorary degree is being given because of the Rev. Bazar's work in the literature field and his accomplishments in various youth activities among the churches of the American Baptist Association.

Negotiators of North Vietnam, U.S. Meet in an Atmosphere of Hope

Red Attack on Saigon Is Crushed

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command says allied troops have crushed the main thrust of the Communist command's nine-day-old attack on Saigon, but it also announced the loss of a Special Forces camp 350 miles to the northeast.

Headquarters said Special Forces—Green Beret—troops and South Vietnamese irregulars were evacuated by air Sunday from the Kham Duc Camp after North Vietnamese troops attacked one of its outposts and threatened to overrun the entire camp.

The enemy shot down one of the evacuation planes, a four-engine C130 transport, killing the six Air Force crewmen and an undisclosed number of civilian irregulars and South Vietnamese army soldiers, U.S. headquarters said. A C130 can carry about 100 troops.

The camp, with about 400 defenders, came under attack Friday. Headquarters said preliminary reports showed 19 Americans killed and 89 wounded. It had no figures on South Vietnamese casualties.

Troops of the U.S. 196th Light Infantry Brigade moved in to cover the withdrawal, and military spokesmen said more than 300 enemy soldiers were estimated to have been killed. They said an "unknown" additional number were killed in massive air strikes, including seven missions near the camp by Air Force B52 bombers Sunday night and today.

Lt. Gen. Fred C. Weyand announced the victory over the enemy's main thrust against Saigon.

"Although isolated small attacks, terrorism and harassment by fire, including rockets, are still possible, large numbers of the enemy have been attempting to withdraw from the battlefield for the past 48 hours, many being intercepted in the process," said Weyand, who commands the 2nd Field Force.

The general said more than 5,200 enemy soldiers were killed or captured in the 3rd Corps Tactical Zone—Saigon and the 11 provinces around it—since the Viet Cong launched their offensive May 5. He said about half of these were lost in greater Saigon area. The remainder were killed or captured when their units were intercepted.

Cong Accused of Troop Buildup

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent
PARIS (AP) — The United States accused North Vietnam directly today of moving "substantial and increasing numbers of troops and supplies" into the South, and called on the Hanoi government to take some "important step toward peace."

In an opening statement at the first round of substantive negotiations, Ambassador W. Averell Harriman renewed a U.S. offer to withdraw forces from Vietnam if and when the North pulls its forces from the South and the "level of violence" subsides.

"For our part," Harriman declared, "we desire no bases in South Vietnam, and we are prepared to leave the facilities we have built there to the people to use as they wish."

For the other side, Xuan Thuy been defeated but is continuing its "aggression" against the people of Vietnam.

An outline of Xuan Thuy's speech was given to a news conference after the meeting by Nguyen Thanh Le, chief spokesman for the North Vietnamese delegation.

Xuan Thuy said the United States has been condemned by international opinion including opinion in the United States. President Johnson, he added, had been obliged to announce a limitation of U.S. bombing but in reality aerial bombardment of an important part of the country is continuing and U.S. reconnaissance planes continue to fly over the country including the capital.

Xuan Thuy charged that new troops were being brought from the United States and new appropriations were being sought from Congress.

For the United States, Harriman proposed:

1. The United States and North Vietnam should restore the demilitarized zone "to its proper and original status."

2. The neutralization agreements on Laos, made in 1962, "should be honored and its people should be left to the peaceful life they desire."

3. The people of South Vietnam, as a matter of principle, "must be allowed to determine their own future without outside interference."

4. The United States is prepared to join with "all the nations of Southeast Asia—and with others—in building a future with great promise for the people of the area."

In effect, this last point was a direct proposal for North Vietnam, once peace was established, to join in a U.S.-assisted development program.

Opinion Was Proper, Says Bennett

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Bruce Bennett, one of six persons seeking the Democratic nomination for governor, said Sunday that Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell's opinion that Class 6 permits were illegal was a "proper, lawful opinion."

Purcell rendered the opinion last week regarding the permits to allow private clubs to serve mixed drinks. The regulations governing the issuance of the permits were established last month by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board.

"The business of mixed drinks has been a problem a long time," Bennett, a former attorney general, said. "Some legislation should have been introduced two years ago to get the matter clarified."

Bennett made his remarks on the television program "Face the State," shown on KTHV here Sunday.

Fulbright Bids for Party Unity

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Sen. J. William Fulbright, assuming his role as an Arkansas Democrat, lashed out at Republican Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller and made a bid for party unity here Saturday.

Fulbright, who is seeking reelection, told delegates at the annual convention of the Arkansas Democratic Women's Club that the party suffered a "disaster" with the election of Rockefeller in 1966.

"We have made some mistakes, of course," Fulbright said, "but there is one thing about Democrats and that is we won't go backward. Now it is high time we reassess ourselves and put Arkansas back to victory in November."

Noting his primary challengers, the senator singled out Jim Johnson without naming him. He reminded the 300 delegates that Johnson had supported Republican Barry Goldwater's presidential candidacy in 1964 and was supporting the third party candidacy this year of George Wallace.

"Despite what some people say, I did not support Goldwater in 1964 or Rockefeller in 1966, and I will not support Richard Nixon or George Wallace in 1968," Fulbright said.

The theme of the convention was "Victory in November" and chairman Barbara O'Dell of North Little Rock read a list of "have-we-had-enough" critiques of the Rockefeller administration.

Miss O'Dell was critical of Rockefeller for bringing in out-of-staters for state jobs and accused him of going to New York for haircuts.

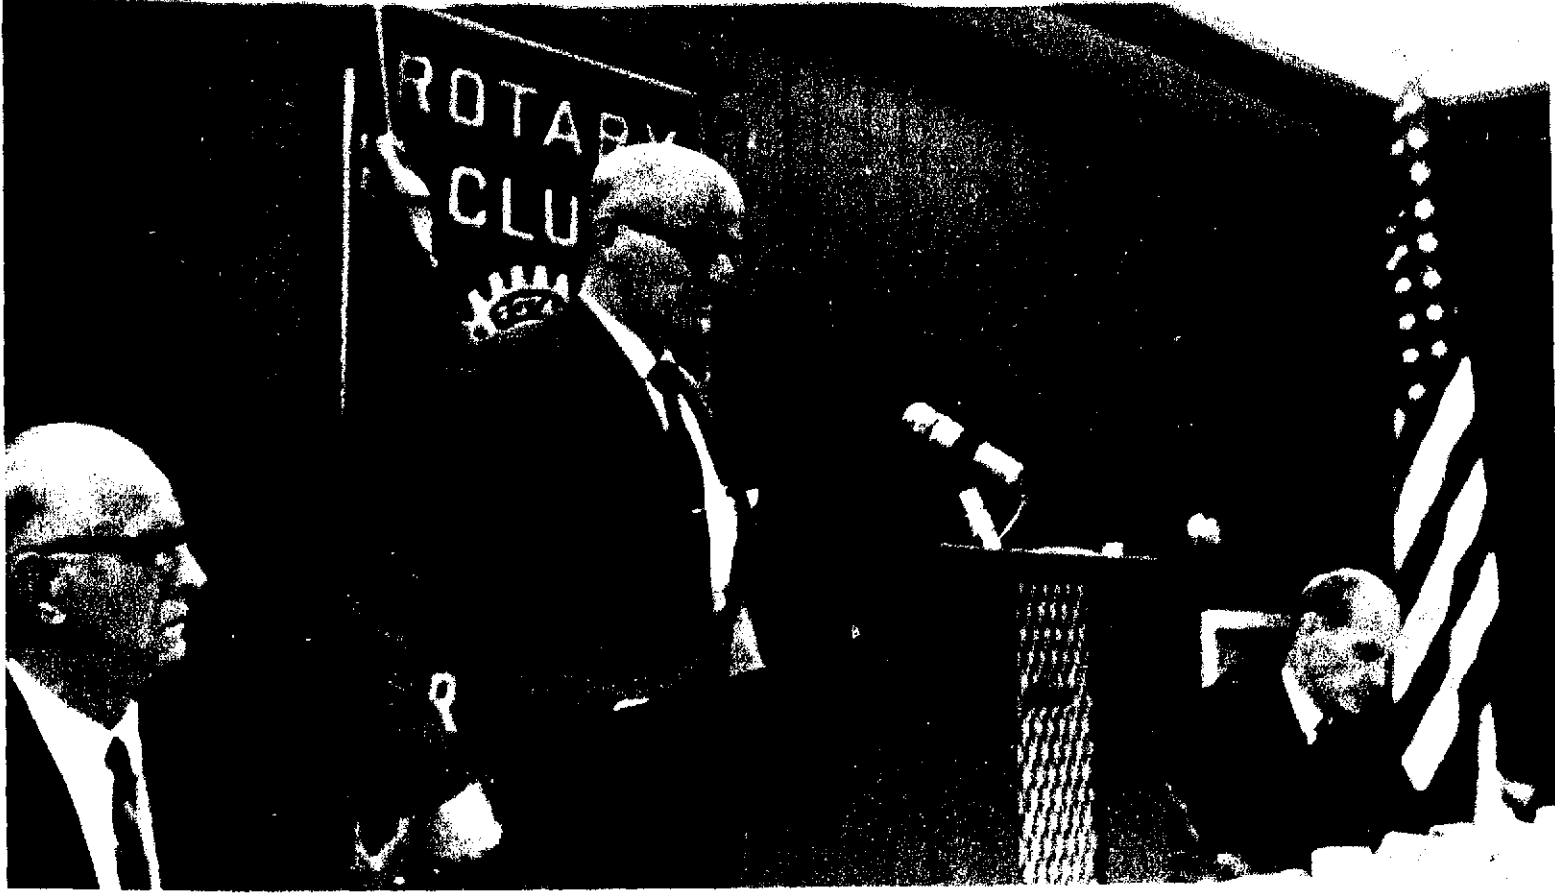

But the center of attention was Fulbright, who took time from his party unity pitch to assess the Vietnam war and peace talks between the United States and North Vietnam in Paris.

The chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said there was reason to believe the Paris conference would be successful.

"All of us certainly should pray that it will bring about a cease fire as a normal first step," he said.

Fulbright said much of the civil and student unrest in the nation revolved around the Vietnam war, and an end to it by a Democratic administration could put the nation at ease.

"So, the first order of business for the Democrats is to get the war stopped, to stop the killing of our young men and to stop the diversion of our attention and energies that are now directed to a poor country 10,000 miles away and to concentrate our money and our minds upon our own problems," he said.

Humphrey Backers Claim 7 Conventions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's backers are claiming seven state convention victories in a row in his bid to pick up enough delegate votes for the Democratic presidential nomination.

They said today Humphrey has a minimum of 169 pledged delegates after victories in Arizona, Alaska, Maryland, Delaware, Nevada, Wyoming—and Hawaii where party officials say he got at least 20 of 26 delegates elected Sunday night.

Humphrey's chief lieutenants — Sens. Walter F. Mondale and Fred Harris—had said earlier they think they have 1,100 of the 1,312 delegate votes needed for nomination at the Democratic National Convention.

The 1,100 figure was an estimate of delegates the backers think would vote for Humphrey, not delegates pledged by state party organizations.

The vice president also is expected to gain delegates Tuesday in the Nebraska primary where he has strong support among delegate candidates whose names are best known in the state.

Castro Uses War to Keep Popularity

By JOHN CLARK
Cleveland Plain Dealer Writer
CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — As far as the masses are concerned, Fidel Castro's popularity "has been sustained by his opposition to our policy in Vietnam," Cyrus S. Eaton, 84-year-old Cleveland financier, said after a visit with the Cuban premier last week.

Vietnam and the abortive Bay of Pigs invasion have been used in Castro's propaganda to solidify his support with the Cuban masses, Eaton told the Plain Dealer in an interview at his Acadia Farms in nearby Northfield.

Eaton said Castro "points to Vietnam as an example of what to expect from America towards a small nation that goes Communist."

In five "very crowded days" in Cuba, Eaton said, he saw children rush to shake Castro's hand and volunteer coffee tree planters applauding from trucks and buses when they sighted the bearded leader in a jeep with his Cleveland guest. Eaton spent part of two days with Castro.

Castro, Eaton claimed, "is the complete boss of Cuba. He is a bold and clever man and he has had some phenomenal breaks, such as the Bay of Pigs and Vietnam. He is also, in my opinion, the most energetic and strenuous statesman in the world."

Eaton's dedication to coexistence between communism and capitalism has made him welcome behind the Iron Curtain and earned the apparent confidence of Soviet leaders.

His trip last week to Cuba was his first there since 1958, two years before the Castro-led revolution. He flew in a Cuban airliner from Mexico on the outward trip and returned via Nassau on Cuban and British airliners.

Long a breeder of ribbon-winning beef cattle at his Northfield farms, Eaton wanted to assess agricultural progress in Cuba. His visit was primarily for this purpose.

He reported Cuba is conducting massive artificial insemination of cattle, using a prize Canadian bull valued at $100,000. Other breeding experiments include attempts to produce sheep providing more mutton.

Cuba is getting more and more material help from U.S. allies, Eaton said. During his visit he had conversations with the ambassadors of Canada, Great Britain, France and Switzerland.

"These countries have sent some of their finest diplomatic personnel to Cuba and although I cannot reveal what they said—I know they are impressed with Cuba's progress," Eaton continued.

Injuries in Wreck Fatal

Kennedy, McCarthy in Nebraska

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer
OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, an election favorite who won't admit it, and Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy stage their final hunt for votes today in Nebraska's Democratic presidential primary—which could hold a political bonus for Hubert H. Humphrey.

Gov. Norbert T. Tiemann, a Republican, said the vice president could pull a substantial write-in vote in Tuesday's Democratic showdown. Cross-over voting is not permitted.

And the governor said he expects to see Richard M. Nixon capture 70 per cent of the vote in a Republican race which holds little suspense.

New York's Kennedy and Minnesota's McCarthy planned a series of campaign sessions between Lincoln and Omaha to wind up their second primary election clash in the race for the Democratic presidential nomination. Kennedy won the initial test, in Indiana last Tuesday.

Their names are on the Nebraska election ballot along with that of President Johnson, who spurned another race for the White House too late to have it removed.

Kennedy has pulled the larger crowds, and is rated a likely Nebraska winner by most Democratic politicians and surveys. But the senator is trying to dampen such talk.

He scoffs at surveys indicating he will take over half the Democratic vote. "How can I get 50 per cent with four of us in the race?" He asked Sunday as his campaign plane flew over Texarkana.

western Nebraska.

In Indiana, Kennedy won with 42 per cent of the vote, McCarthy polled 27 per cent. The rest went to Gov. Roger D. Branigin, a favorite son.

McCarthy all but conceded the election in advance. He has forecast a Kennedy showing of something over 40 per cent, with about 30 per cent of the vote in his own column. He chose to campaign in Oregon and California in the waning days of the Nebraska race, calling them key tests in the primary races for the nomination.

He picked up his Nebraska campaign Sunday—and said in McCook that a victory here would help him in those later primaries.

Nixon's opposition in the Republican race consists of California Gov. Ronald Reagan, who is on the ballot but says he isn't running for the presidency, and a miniature write-in movement for New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, a candidate not on the ballot. Perennial candidate Harold Stassen and a Nebraska cowboy named Americus Liberator also are on the GOP ballot.

Tiemann said that with Johnson's name on the ballot, votes for the President could logically be assumed to be votes sympathetic to Humphrey.

Humphrey held a session with about 40 candidates for seats at the Democratic National Convention Saturday.

The preferential primary is not binding on the delegates who will be elected Tuesday to cast 28 Nebraska votes at the convention.

Medical Rights Group Saves Many Lives

By JEAN HELLER
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A young mother awoke at 2 a.m. to find her infant son violently ill. Outside her home, soldiers with fixed bayonets patrolled the streets and she was afraid to try to get through to a hospital.

Around the corner from the 12th Precinct, two men jumped a soldier from behind, knocked him to the ground and kicked him in the throat. He couldn't breathe. His heart stopped. In a matter of minutes, he would be beyond saving.

In both instances during last month's civil disorder here, disaster was averted by doctors who belong to the Medical Committee for Human Rights, a volunteer organization which has staffed emergency medical centers in riot areas across the nation.

A call from the frightened mother to the committee brought a pediatrician to her home within minutes to treat her son for an ear infection.

A team of volunteer doctors who had been treating minor injuries in the 12th Precinct jail rushed to the injured soldier, applied heart massage and saved his life.

"We started this committee in 1964 to provide emergency medical care at times and in places where ordinary medical care is, at best, inadequate and, at worst, nonexistent," said Dr. George Wilson, national president of the committee, in an interview from Philadelphia where he teaches at Temple University.

"Doctors and nurses responded to pleas from Selma, Ala., that year, pleas from organizations working on voter registration.

"When it was over, we found that we weren't satisfied with just stitching up cut heads. We decided we should be doing something to keep heads intact in the first place."

In 1965, the Medical Committee for Human Rights became a full-fledged national organization, incorporated in New York City. It claims a national membership of 4,000. Since then, its members have found themselves ministering to the sick and injured in Bogalusa, La., marching with James Meredith down U.S. 51 in June, 1966 and in the midst of the Chicago, Detroit and Washington civil upheavals.

They have lobbied on Capitol Hill for strong medicare and Social Security laws; worked with the Office of Economic Opportunity to provide improved medical care for children in the Head Start program and studied the health problems of city jails.

Some members of the committee are fond of saying their organization represents the medical arm of the civil rights movement. Wilson does not agree.

"It started that way," he said, "but the old civil rights movement died with the concept of successful nonviolence on the Meredith march, and at that point we expanded our aims to take on national goals and national programs concerned with all sorts of human activities—particularly the correction of the inadequacy of health and medical care to all the poor—the Negro, the Mexican American, the poor white man."

For that reason, the Washington branch of the committee has, for weeks, been stockpiling drugs—the bulk donated by 19 drug companies, one drug store chain and the District of Columbia Health Department—for availability when the Poor People's Campaign gets to town.

When the campaign is over the committee expects to go back to putting pressure on Congress to try and solve the medical problems of the poor.

"We have and will continue to testify on health and medical issues in Congress and advise when we're asked on the drafting of new legislation," Wilson said.

Rockefeller Seeks to Slow Nixon

By BILL BOYARSKY
Associated Press Writer
HONOLULU (AP) — One of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's top advisers is talking privately to Western Republican governors here, seeking to stop Richard M. Nixon from staking a claim in the West in his race for the GOP presidential nomination.

Leonard Hall, former Republican national chairman, conferred with California Gov. Ronald Reagan—himself a potential nominee—and others of the 11 Republican chief executives at the Western Governors' Conference.

"Just social calls," said Hall, who roomed through the convention hotel on the beach at Waikiki dressed in a Hawaiian shirt, the uniform of this meeting.

Thirteen state chief executives and the governors of American Samoa and Guam began four days of meetings on such Western problems as resources, transportation, economic development, land management and water.

As usual, however, gubernatorial political talks attracted as much attention as the morning and afternoon meetings on state problems.

Between meetings, the governors relaxed on the beach or saw the sights of Honolulu. Hall told a reporter that he doesn't believe former Vice President Nixon's support is as solid as his supporters claim.

While Hall said he didn't specifically urge Western governors to refuse to back Nixon, he said he believed most would "stay loose" until just before the convention, rather than sign up in the Nixon camp.

If enough state delegations stay uncommitted, Nixon would be deprived of victory on the first ballot—the aim of Rockefeller supporters.

Hall said he wasn't using a "hard sell" on the governors, just renewing old friendships.

And he said he would not ask Reagan to join a Rockefeller-Reagan ticket—the so-called "dream ticket" that many of the New Yorker's supporters talk about.

Reagan says he will not accept the vice presidential nomination.

The Californian also says he is not campaigning for the presidential nomination.

Different But Somehow It Seems Same

EDITOR'S NOTE—AP political writer Jack Bell, who covered John F. Kennedy's 1960 campaigning, reports the differences and similarities in Robert F. Kennedy's 1968 drive for the Democratic presidential nomination.

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer
OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Everything is different. But, somehow, everything seems the same.

The voice that comes out of the microphone mounted on the campaign sound truck has the same Harvard Yard twang. Often the quick, jerky gestures, the finger stabbing in the air for emphasis, are the same.

But the 1968 version of a Kennedy on the campaign trail has many differences from the 1960 Kennedy who established the political mystique of the family name.

In its fundamentals, the theme of John F. Kennedy eight years ago was: "Let's get this nation moving." He held aloft the banner of a dream of American greatness, a pattern of movement after what he labeled the drowsy Eisenhower years.

Basically, Sen. Robert F. Kennedy is telling the campaign crowds as he crisscrosses the country that there is entirely too much wrong with America. He recites the ills of rioting, the hunger and the malignant idleness in the ghettos, the flaring threat of inflation, the bloody death toll in Vietnam.

These bad, bad things just cannot be permitted to continue, he says. Yet while he spells out his position on the issues in policy papers, his ultimate solution is simple: If the voters just elect him president, he will do something about them.

The physical differences in campaigning by the Kennedy of 1960 and the Kennedy of 1968 stand out sharply.

John F. Kennedy was always a cool customer, highly approachable in private but a little standoffish in his response to public demonstrations. At 6 feet 1 and packing about 185 pounds, he could walk through crowds without being manhandled by admirers.

The beaming ladies, young and old, jumped, danced and squealed and tried to touch him as he rode or walked by. It was said of him that he looked like the kind of handsome husband every woman would like to have claimed for her own.

With Bob Kennedy it is different. At 5 feet 9 plus, weighing 165 soaking wet, he can get lost in the sea of those pressing about him. Tall Bill Barry, an ex-FBI man with the shoulders of a shotputter, breaks intere-

ence through the swarms of youthful admirers who persist in pressing close to touch Kennedy's clothing—if they can't reach the undulating hands he runs along the tips of the fingers stretching toward him.

Once Barry lands him in the official car, the security man hangs around Kennedy's middle like a linebacker who has tackled a running back at the waistline. The crowd urge to rip off the New Yorker's cufflinks has become such an "in" thing that he now buys disposable ones by the gross.

Says Kickback Report Is Distorted

WASHINGTON (AP) — A secret Senate report alleging indications of kickbacks to employees of a U.S. construction firm in South Vietnam has been wrongly denied by the company's top officer.

Edward A. Shay, president of Pacific Architects & Engineers, Inc., said Sunday the report is "distorted, unjustified and unfair."

The 75-page document, prepared by Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn., after a Southeast Asia tour last December, urges broad congressional investigation of U.S. aid programs in Vietnam and of contracts held by two major contractors.

Ribicoff named the firms as RMK-BRJ, a joint venture that includes four companies, and Shay's PAE. The report has been filed with the Senate permanent investigations subcommittee.

There was no immediate comment in Saigon from U.S. aid and RMK-BRJ officials. Shay's prepared reply was released by company officials in Los Angeles.

Governors to Attend State Meet

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's office has announced that four out-of-state governors will definitely attend the regional platform hearing here which starts at 9 a.m. Wednesday.

Governors definitely attending are Dewey F. Bartlett of Oklahoma, Raymond P. Shafer of Pennsylvania, Norbert T. Tiemann of Nebraska and Harold LeVander of Minnesota. Rockefeller's office also said

Monday, May 13, 1968 that Govs. George Romney of Michigan, Claude R. Kirk of Florida and Louie Nunn of Kentucky may attend.

Topic of discussion at the Little Rock meeting will be education and government spending and economic resources.

The National Republican Governors Association has scheduled a series of platform hearings to develop issues that will be presented to the National GOP Convention in Miami Beach.
